First off, Lindi and I need to thank all of the EMMC Region 1 churches for the prayers and support. HGC in particular has given us a foundation to stand on, a home to rest in and people to confide in. Our place within HGC has affirmed our direction and our gifting. You have given us space to love and to be loved. The outpouring of interest and involvement from the onset of the WGC to Antioch change-over was life-giving to say the least. It gave us further confidence to push through the darkness and press into the light. This past year would have been so much more difficult without your encouragement and belief - THANK YOU !

To walk into what was The Warman Gospel Church - you might not notice anything much but that is precisely the point. Prior to the alterations and renovations - the space was mismatched, outdated and distracting. What was - needed to pass away and a slow resurrection is taking place with each step in that direction. Every item removed from the space is significant and we can feel the space being revitalized. The old orange pews are gone, the walls have been painted and just a few less visible places are left to finish. Its looking fresh and unencumbered - ready for what God has planned.

Aside from the several community groups using the space, we ran a youth drop-in in partnership with Thrive that ended in the spring. A pattern emerged during this time. Those interested in Antioch were people who have recently left the church feeling let down or frustrated by their experience. They find themselves longing for community and not really knowing how to find it. Taking note of this pattern sent Lindi and I time of prayer and discernment (perhaps we are still in it). This people group is not one we necessarily anticipated and yet we find ourselves shoulder to shoulder.

Perpetually God is revealing the next steps of this un-formulaic church plant and it never really looks like what we expected. So we operate with open-hands and sensitivity to the Holy Spirit. Many of the Community Centre's next moves will start to unfold in the Fall. Our partnership with thrive will continue, we believe that we will begin a Tuesday night gathering for couples which is an extension of Lindi's study called Presence and we also plan to start a Saturday night worship time that will revolve around music and fellowship.

All though it looks very different, Lindi and I both find ourselves doing an increasing amount of mentoring and discipleship. Our mentor John Yoder spoke this over us very early on in our walk with Christ and it is intense to see it play out. It is no fairy tale. People are hurting and even people who love Jesus are failing prey to their flesh and to the enemies schemes. Please pray for us - the spiritual warfare is real.

The summer keeps me very busy interacting with youth and for now I am focusing a little more on the Skateboard side of things. We do a weekly bbq and fellowship night at the Lions skatepark in Saskatoon. Fundraising is going well with the second facility (the indoor skatepark and youth centre) I hope to build on our property and we have about 40% raised. We are planning a big skateboard contest near the end of August. We hope to make it a big deal and to use it as platform to raise some money for the indoor park as well as raise awareness of our existence and plans. We may need an army of volunteers from HGC :) so keep maybe keep August 21st open if you can?? After the contest we want to have a "benefit concert" on the property of Antioch. This would be an amazing way to interact with many who need to feel Jesus. Please keep us in your prayers! God bless.

Sincerely, Ryan and Lindi Davidson
